DAYTON THROGGED AS COX IS NOTIFIED

GOVERNOR SAYS LEAGUE SUPREME CAMPAIGN ISSUE

Dayton, O., Aug. 7.—Fifteen thousand pilgrims today participated in the parade that preceded the Cox notification exercises at the Montgomery county fair grounds.

Gilbert Cox, the governor's father, headed the Camden, O. delegation. From Middletown, the candidate's boyhood home, 750 were in line. Senator Harding's home, Marion, sent 1,000, and his birthplace, Morrow county, 500.

Many of the delegations were uniformed, including the "Cox Boosters," who traveled to San Francisco. Two score of bands were in line, including the "Cox band," the scarlet-coated Meteor organization from Piqua, O., made famous at San Francisco, which headed the parade.

Coal miners from the Cambridge district marched in working clothes, carrying head torches. Another feature was the presence of 25 Filipinos from the Ohio State university.

Ohio furnished most of the notification throng, although there were large delegations from outside, including 1,000 from Indianapolis; 200 Guffy club, Pittsburgh; 300 Port Wayne, Ind.; 200 Philadelphia; 200 Ironclads club, Chicago, and a Louisville, Ky., body. Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland sent the largest Ohio delegations, excepting that of Dayton. The Columbus Glee club was included in the capital city delegation.

An enormous crowd witnessed the exercises at the fair grounds, following the parade. It was a demonstrative assemblage and the Democratic nominee was cheered again and again. Chairman Robinson of the Democratic convention's notification committee made the notification address, to which the governor responded.

Scores of Democratic chieftains, including Senator Robinson, President Wilson's secretary, J. P. Tumulty; officers and members of the national and notification committees, are here. It is estimated there are 50,000 visitors in the city.

Cox's Speaking Tour.

Governor Cox announced that he would speak throughout the middle and eastern states until Sept. 1, and then tour the entire west, including the Pacific coast. "We feel that we can win," he said, "wherever folks are and where the case can be stated. State lines don't amount to much."

The nominee's speaking plans were arranged with George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and Senator Harrison of Mississippi, head of the speakers' bureau. During this month no elaborate speaking tour will be attempted, but numerous addresses will be made, principally in Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana and the east, the governor stated.

Among definite addresses fixed were for the Ohio Democratic convention at Columbus Aug. 17 and at New York city on Aug. 28. The latter will be made at the Gravesend race track, at the New York police field day games. The governor also has invitations to speak at Camp Perry rifle match Aug. 12, the West Virginia Democratic convention at Wheeling Aug. 14 and to the Indiana editors meeting at South Bend later this month. Speaking dates in New England this month also are under consideration.

Kidnaped Baby Is Alive.

Philadelphia, Aug. 7.—Augusto Pasquale, the "crank" in the Coughlin kidnapping case, admitted after a grilling by the police that the Coughlin baby is alive and declared that he would return it in 24 hours he would tell all. Baby Blakely Coughlin was kidnaped from his home in Norristown on June 2.

To Abolish Army Departments.

Washington, Aug. 7.—An order abolishing the six departments of the army and establishing nine corps areas, as provided in the army reorganization act, has been prepared in the war department and is awaiting the approval of Secretary Baker. The geographical boundaries of the nine corps as yet have not been announced. Each area would be under the command of a major general.

Amundsen Starts For Pole.

Nome, Alaska, Aug. 7.—Captain Raold Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, will leave Nome today to resume his attempt to reach the north pole, he announced. He plans to steer his vessel, the Maud, for Wrangell island, off the northern coast of Siberia, and from that point to drift with the Arctic ice pack.

COURT DIRECTS DENVER LEADERS TO END STRIKE

Denver, Colo., Aug. 7.—Leaders of the striking carmen here were ordered by Judge Greeley Whitford of the district court to immediately recall the strike order issued last Sunday for a strike on the Denver tramway system.

The judge found seven officers and executive committeemen of the carmen's union guilty of contempt for calling the strike. They were Henry Silberg, J. A. Parker, J. E. Barnett, A. Coffeen, J. E. McKiddie, L. J. Seigrist and S. H. Schoepflin.

The strike leaders were alleged to have violated an injunction secured by the city several weeks ago restraining the company from reducing wages and the men from striking. The men now are striking for higher pay.

Between 400 and 500 American Legion members, wearing the uniforms which they wore during the world war, are patrolling the outlying districts of the city to relieve the regular policemen for duty in the downtown sections. All theaters, including moving picture houses, in the downtown section were closed last night. Citizens were requested by Mayor Bailey to remain at home.

Forty persons have been injured and 30 arrested in connection with the rioting. Statements by officers of the Denver Trades and Labor assembly and of the tramway men's union were issued denying that they were responsible for the rioting.

J. S. Goble, an organizer for the trades and labor assembly, declared that the blame belonged to the local civic bodies which have been agitating for "open shop" in Denver. He declared that their "propaganda" had infuriated the workers of the city and made them ready for violence.

According to company officials, there are now 500 strikebreakers in the city and 200 more are on the way.

Three Killed in Riot.

Three men were killed and 13 injured when rioting was resumed by striking streetcar men and their sympathizers at the East Side car barns last night. The dead are Dan Sullivan, 25; Dan Flannigan and Charles Hanson, all of Denver. John Collins, 35, and Leonard Tremmer, 18, both of Denver, were seriously injured they may die.

A crowd of several hundred gathered and made an effort to close in on the car barns. The move was met with a fusillade of shots from those protecting the barns. A detachment of armed police was on duty at the barns and the 150 strikebreakers housed there also were armed.

Federal troops are expected to arrive in the city today to assist the police force. The governor received a telegram from the chief of staff at Chicago stating that 500 troops would leave Camp Funston, Kan., for Denver. The chief of staff also authorized Governor Shoup to call on Fort Logan, just outside of Denver, for troops for immediate use, but no call has been made.

The union leaders held a meeting and called the strike off.

R. & M. EMPLOYEES OF LOCAL BRANCH ATTEND BIG PICNIC

Between 350 and 400 employees of the Plant No. 4, of the Robbins & Myers Company, this city and their families, went to Springfield Saturday afternoon to attend the annual picnic of the company held at the Clark County Fair Grounds.

About 11,000 people are expected to attend the affair, including employees and their families. A long list of amusements and attractions make up the program of entertainment for this record breaking crowd.

Cigars, lemonade and root beer will be served to the picnickers free by the company and a number of boxing bouts have been arranged for the afternoon for the pleasure of fight fans. Among the bouts will be a headliner between Tommy Teague, of Muncie, Ind., and Tommy Gary, of Dayton, a semi-final between Whitey Clark, of Springfield, and Kid McManus, of Dayton, the two boys who met here last winter, and a battle royal for a preliminary. William Foley of this city, is on the entertainment committee and assisted in arranging the bouts.

A half mile mile race for department heads is expected to add much amusement to the afternoon. In the evening there will be dancing at Memorial Hall with O'Brien's orchestra furnishing the music and there will also be dancing at the Fairgrounds in the afternoon.

Mahoning County's Population.

POLES FLEE AS REDS CLOSE ON WARSAW

The Bolshevik hordes are steadily advancing on Warsaw and are directing their main effort to cutting the line of communication between Warsaw and Danzig, from which point Poland receives its war materials. Red Cavalry are reported within thirty miles of Mlawa, on the Warsaw-Danzig railroad line. Red Infantry is reported to have crossed the Bug River in many places, shattering Poland's last line of defense east of Warsaw. The shaded portion of the map shows the territory taken by the Bolshevik troops since last March. The black section shows the scene of the present heavy operations.

SOLDIERS QUELL RIOT IN CITY IN ILLINOIS

HOLCOMB PRISONER IN HIS OWN STATE OWING TO SUFFRAGE

Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb.

Because of his uncompromising attitude against suffrage, Governor Holcomb of Connecticut is virtually a prisoner in his own state. He has refused to call a special session of the legislature to vote on the suffrage amendment; but the lieutenant governor, Clifford B. Wilson, asserts that he will convene the assembly the moment the governor steps outside the state's borders. For reasons which seem good to him, the governor wishes to leave the state, but dares not.

INDIANA DELEGATION WILL HEAR HARDING SPEECH AT MARION

Marion, O., Aug. 7.—As a result of Senator Harding's political conferences, the Republican nominee's headquarters announced that one of the first big delegations to come from outside Ohio for a front-porch speech would be from Indianapolis. Aug. 28 was set as the date after Senator Harding had talked over arrangements with a group headed by Elias C. Jacoby, chairman of the Indianapolis Harding club. They told the nominee that more than 2,000 Indians would be present.

The senator's callers included Harvey C. Smith, secretary of state of Ohio, who made a tentative arrangement for Muskingum county Republicans to come here, on Sept. 16, and J. R. McCarl of Nebraska, executive secretary of the national Republican congressional committee, who reported on the progress of the congressional campaign.

One of the senator's odd jobs during the day was to make five campaign speeches. His only audience, however, was the operator of a recording apparatus for phonograph records, and the speeches all were excerpts from his previous public deliveries. The records are to be distributed by the Republican national committee as a means of carrying the front-porch campaign into every locality.

Loaded Rifles Used To Hold Mobs In Check In West.

West Fork, Ills., Aug. 7.—Bayoneted rifles loaded and ready for action in the hands of Illinois militiamen, held mob rule in check here today. Three hundred soldiers patrolled the streets in squads with orders to shoot to kill. Five hundred others are enroute to this riot torn town to reinforce them.

There were sporadic outbreaks of rioting and shooting during the night. Bricks and stones were hurled from alleys on the patrolling soldiers and these were answered with bullets, but so far as could be learned, no one was killed.

Telephone and telegraph connection with the outside world was established about midnight. The wires had been torn down when the mob rule first got under way so that the city would be shut off from all aid from the outside.

MILITARY HONORS PAID SOLDIER WHO DIED IN GERMANY

With a touch of military honors, Leroy Jenkins, Green county soldier who died in Germany, was laid to rest Friday in the cemetery at Port William, near the spot where he had spent boyhood.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Port William. Fifteen members of Wilbur F. Thorpe Post of the American Legion at Jamestown in uniform with their post commander, the Rev. William P. O'Connor, and bearing their colors, attended the services, and served as a guard of honor about the casket.

At the grave Wilbur Thomas Post conducted its ritualistic burial service, and Father O'Connor gave a brief discourse. As commander of the casket, which had draped the casket, and which were presented to the post by Mr. and Mrs. Julius Jenkins, parents of the dead soldier.

The services at the church were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Sultzbank of New Vienna who gave an impressive discourse. Assisting in the services were the Rev. Mr. Cooper, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Wilmingon, and the Rev. Mr. Cooper, pastor of the Jamestown Methodist Episcopal church. The choir sang three hymns, "Abide With Me," "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Face to Face."

Joseph P. Foody Post of the American Legion, Xenia, furnished the pallbearers. Burt Smith, Jacob Colp, R. W. Custis, Guy Pillsbury, Forest Hurley and Ernest Fries.

OLDEST RACER STILL IN SHAPE

Joe Ashland, the gray gelding owned by W. C. McMullen, of London, was probably the oldest starter at the county fair track Friday.

This pacer, entered in the 2:15 has been tearing around the county fair ovals for years and is still good for a half mile. He finished 11, 7 and 9, in three heats and was a 50 to 1 shot in the last heat.

EUROPE'S FATE HANGS IN BALANCE AS RUSS DEMAND IS ACCEPTED

British Accept Soviet Terms For General Peace Parley.

POWERS REPRESENTED

Premiers In Conference To Determine Future Action.

London, Aug. 7.—In diplomatic circles it is intimated that the fate of Europe now hangs in the balance.

The situation at this time revolves about the note which was forwarded by the soviet government of Russia to Great Britain, which is said to propose that the London conference be "one of all the great powers of the world, since without the assistance of these leading nations the other states could not wage war against us, and only such a conference really could guarantee the general peace of Europe."

Lloyd-George will announce in the house of commons Monday that Great Britain accepts the conditions of the soviet reply; that the conference will be held and that Germany and the Baltic states probably will be represented.

This acceptance of the terms of the soviet note, it was said, would unquestionably mean a great general peace conference, involving questions of revision of the Versailles treaty. An effort to assure America's participation in such a conference would be inevitable.

It has been decided that Premier Lloyd-George, who will be accompanied by Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, will meet M. Millerand, the French premier, and Marshal Foch tomorrow, to decide upon the future course of events, and thus pave the way for the premier's announcement of policy before the house of commons Monday.

Soviet's Claims.

The text of the Russian note claims they are justified in inferring that by the return of the Polish armistice delegates to Warsaw they are speculating on foreign assistance and delaying an agreement with the soviets in expectation of such aid. It declares the Bolsheviks have every precedent for continuing to make war on the Poles until an armistice is signed.

Guarantees that the Poles do not violate the period of the armistice, when it is signed, for the renewal of hostile acts, are demanded in the note, which declares that the uninterrupted assistance the French have given Poland and the presence of General Wrangel, Russian anti-Bolshevik leader, supported by the French on the Polish right wing, have made it necessary to ask such guarantees.

Semi-official reports also had it that the British government was making plans to take immediate and direct action against Russia. It was said England would combat the Bolsheviks by aiding Poland and through her own forces.

The British Labor party is taking a strong stand in the matter of the Polish-Russian situation with a view to arousing the country against war with Russia.

DISTRIBUTORS WARNED,

Increase In Food Prices At This Time Will Not Be Tolerated.

Columbus, Aug. 7.—The Ohio fair price commission will not tolerate any present increase in the price of food commodities, milk or otherwise, at this time. This was announced by the secretary of the commission. Milk distributors were told that an order would be issued to all fair price commissions to investigate any advance in the price of foodstuffs in the state and turn all evidence gathered over to district attorneys for prosecution. According to the distributors, the milk producing companies are demanding an increase of 50 cents per 100 pounds in the price of milk. The producers are now being paid $3.75 per 100 pounds.

WHEELER'S VIEW OF IT

Beer Amendment The Big Issue In Congressional Elections.

Columbus, Aug. 7.—"The big issue in the coming congressional elections is over the beer and wine amendment to the Volstead act," according to Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league. Operation of beer and wine amendment, Wheeler declared, prevent honest enforcement of the law. The big question now, he added, is what is essential to effective enforcement. "The state prohibition code enacted for Ohio by the legislature, which will be voted on in November," Wheeler said, "has in it only the essentials of law enforcement. If it is defeated, it means Ohio will not harmonize her laws with the federal constitution. It will encourage lawlessness because the uninformed will believe they can sell liquor if the state does not prohibit it."

PERSIA OVERRUN BY BOLSHIEVIKI; U. S. DIPLOMATS TO LEAVE

Washington, Aug. 7.—A long conference at the white house by President Wilson, Secretary of State Coby and Undersecretary Davis gave rise to the belief that American action in the Russo-Polish controversy is not far off. Developments of the highest importance, involving the part which America may be called upon to play in the warfare between the nations, is looked for momentarily.

The president, fortified with all the latest facts in the situation as the result of his conference with the state department officials, is believed to be on the point of determining what the policy of the United States should be and just what steps it should take, if any, toward bringing the warfare to a close.

The latest cables received at the state department bearing on the situation were laid before the president. One of these cables, it is understood, advised the state department of the serious danger threatening Persia, where the soviet forces have penetrated to such an extent as to endanger the lives of allied and American diplomatic representatives there.

Because of the rapid advance of the Bolshevik army upon Teheran, the Persian capital, John L. Caldwell, the American minister there, was authorized by the state department to move the legation staff from that city. A request from the American consul at Tabriz, Persia, that he be allowed to depart from that place, also was approved.

TREATY SIGNED

Austria Said to Have Formed an Alliance With Russia.

Washington, Aug. 7.—According to state department advices, soviet Russia has made a treaty of alliance with Austria. This alliance is said to have the greatest significance in connection with the Bolshevik offensive against Poland and Moscow's campaign for world revolution.

Ostensibly the treaty was supposed to be one for the repatriation of the prisoners of war of each country, it is believed, but other of the provisions are of great significance and constitute a menace to the allies.

Under the terms of the treaty Austria agrees to remain neutral in any war against soviet Russia, specifically the Russo-Polish war, and pledges herself to prevent the shipment of any war materials through her territory to the enemies of soviet Russia. Through the treaty the Bolsheviks have gained a useful ally against Poland and Austria keeps its pledge to soviet Russia and prohibits such resources from reaching Russia's enemies, it is believed.

CAN'T CONTROL "KICK"

New York Cider Manufacturers Appeal From Kramer's Ruling.

New York, Aug. 7.—West Chester county apple cider manufacturers, appealing to the courts from the refusal of Prohibition Commissioner Kramer to permit them to manufacture cider of more than one-half of 1 per cent alcoholic content, declared they were powerless to control the "kick" in the product after it was stored in barrels. Apple cider that went into the barrels with an alcoholic content of one-half of 1 per cent, they said would sometimes emerge with 50 per cent or more of alcohol "through no fault of the manufacturer." The petitioners set forth that they found it impossible to keep apple cider in barrels without the alcoholic content increasing over one-half of 1 per cent. They asked the court to take judicial cognizance of that fact and compel the prohibition commissioner to grant them the necessary permits to manufacture their product.

DIPLOMATS QUIT WARSAW

Evacuation of City Continuing as a Precautionary Measure.

London, Aug. 7.—The evacuation of Warsaw, the Polish capital, is continuing as a precautionary measure. French and British missions, headed respectively by M. Jusserand and Lord Dabernon, planned to depart very soon to make full report of the situation to their governments. Almost all the other diplomats already have gone.

Approaches to Warsaw are congested with traffic. There are thousands of refugees on the roads. Many are reported dying of disease and hunger. At the town of Modlin, about 25 miles from Warsaw, a large army is being made ready to attack the Bolsheviks if they reach that point. The army is composed entirely of volunteers. Extensive fortifications are being erected.

The State ticket will be separated from the National ticket this year.

Republicans must have a strong candidate to head the State ticket. One who will receive the support of all elements of the party

A thorough canvas of the State shows that the trend of sentiment is toward Congressman McCulloch for the Republican nomination for Governor, as all elements will vote for him at the election in November

McCulloch's popularity with the people is shown by his success as a candidate for Congress in carrying three times a Democratic district by overwhelming majorities, winning the last time by 12,200 votes.

McCulloch's record during his three terms in Congress is one of real accomplishments and is proof of his qualifications and ability to fill with distinction the office of Governor of Ohio.

Vote for him at the Primary, August 10th.

McCULLOCH'S PLATFORM

Is a blow at WASTE and EXTRAVAGANCE in the administration of State affairs and offers a solution of the State's financial problems. McCulloch stands for the reorganization of State Departments and the elimination of all useless Boards and Commissions. McCulloch stands for a budget system to guard against waste and to fix responsibility to relieve the burdens of taxation. McCulloch stands for "Americanism" as against "Internationalism."

ROSCOE C. McCULLOCH

Now Congressman 16th District.

SHERIFF AND POLICE GET MAN AT FAIR ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER

Caught with the goods on his person, by Sheriff Lincoln Funderburg and Police Officer Joseph Day, George Cramer, aged 40, former proprietor of a saloon on Wyoming street, Dayton, was arrested on a charge of bootlegging, at the Greene county fair grounds Friday afternoon.

Sixteen quarts of Old Overholt whiskey, bottled in bond were confiscated by the officers from an automobile belonging to Fred Tejan, manager of The Dayton Country Club Stables.

Tejan who had a string of show horses at the fair for Col. Mead of Springfield, told the officers that he had nothing to do with the whiskey beyond transporting it to Xenia for Cramer. He brought Sheriff Funderburg and the confiscated whiskey to the city in his automobile, and was allowed to go without a charge being placed against him. Officers being certain that he would easily be located if wanted later.

Sheriff Funderburg at once got into communication over long distance telephone with United States Commissioner Frank W. Howell of Dayton, and was instructed to arrest Tejan and confiscate the automobile as government property. When the officers returned to the fair grounds they found that Tejan had gone back to Dayton. Tejan was located later at his home in that city, and promised to appear before Commissioner Howell at 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

The bootlegging was taking place in one of the stalls of the fair ground stables, near which the Tejan car was standing. Sheriff Funderburg and Officer Day approached Cramer who was standing behind the machine with a bottle of whiskey wrapped in a newspaper, under his arm.

"What have you there?" said the sheriff grabbing Cramer by the arm. "A shirt," answered Cramer, attempting to jerk away.

The sheriff pulled a pair of handcuffs from his pocket and started to place them on Cramer's wrists. Cramer uttered an oath and tried to get away, but he was subdued by a gun officer pulled. The officers unwrapped the bundle, disclosing the bottle of whiskey.

Tejan was standing near the machine, and Sheriff Funderburg asked him whose car it was.

"It is mine," replied Tejan. "Then let's see what is in it," said the sheriff. For a moment Tejan demurred, then unlocked the rear of the car, disclosing the liquor. Tejan is said to be well known, and to bear a good reputation in Dayton. He told Sheriff Funderburg that he was a deputy sheriff at the Dayton Country Club and wore a deputy's badge.

Cramer was taken to Dayton Friday evening by United States Marshall Kendig and Sheriff Funderburg, and gave bond before Commissioner Howell for his appearance today.

George R. Bocklet is spending some time in Chicago visiting friends. After several weeks' visit he expects to visit Detroit before returning home.

Dr. and Mrs. John Ayer went to attend the funeral of Dr. O. D. Maddux well known veterinarian who fell dead Wednesday night. Dr. Maddux was about 38 years of age. He was well known to stock men in Greene county.

Notice.—South side W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. L. E. Oldham on Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Theme, "Sabbath Observance." Election of officers. Complete organization of Prohibition National Guards. Picnic supper. Annual dues.

FACTS

Concerning W. J. Davis, President County Surveyor and Candidate for Re-election.

Nearly three years ago, W. J. Davis was called to Greene County from the Ohio State Highway Department to assist in completing the road work for the County. His eighteen years of experience as a civil engineer in the service of the U. S. Government, the Ohio State Highway Department, and with railroad companies in building roads and bridges have well fitted him for the valuable work he is now performing for Greene County.

His high sense of justice and his expert knowledge of materials and their values, together with his thorough and pains-taking performance of all duties were recognized by all who came in contact with him and he was at once appointed Deputy County Surveyor, since which time he has been a resident and taxpayer of Greene County.

When a vacancy occurred in the County Surveyor's office, Mr. Davis was unanimously selected as County Surveyor in recognition of the valuable and efficient work he had done and was doing for the County. His conduct of the office has been highly gratifying to all those who are responsible for his appointment and to all with whom he has come in contact, due to his courteous treatment, efficient work and square dealing. Mr. Davis is a graduate of the Ohio Northern University in the department of Civil Engineering. He is a willing and conscientious worker, a tried and proven public servant, and his conduct of the office he now holds merits his retention in the Surveyor's office of Greene County, Ohio.

If you desire to do Greene County a real service, go to the polls on August 10th, 1920, and place your mark in front of the name of W. J. Davis.

A LITTLE TALK ABOUT "PLOWING AROUND STUMPS."

At a local democratic picnic, near Dayton, on Thursday, Governor Cox said: "The opposition apparently has adopted the course of doing what we farmers used to do—of plowing around the stump, of seeking to avoid the things that perplex. It is, with the opposition, expediency pure and simple. They attempt to appeal to this group, that group and other groups, without the slightest consideration of the great menace thereby to the perpetuity of our government. Our course is the straight course."

We deny the allegation, and defy the alligator. The Republican party has never "plowed around any stumps." Did it "plow around the stumps" in 1860, when you democratic friends of the solid south commenced their war to break this nation in two—the same kind of democrats who tried, in Baltimore, to assassinate President Abraham Lincoln on his way to Washington to be inaugurated?

Did the Republican party "plow around the stumps," when your democratic friends fired on Fort Sumpter? Did it at any time during the civil war, when your copperhead and butt-nut friends were maligning Lincoln, "plow around the stumps?"

Neither is the Republican party now trying to "plow around any stumps" IN ITS OWN FIELDS. But it is trying to plow around the stumps of Article 10 of the League of Nations, which would require it to "preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and political independence of all members of the League." This foreign field "stump" it has steadfastly refused to be bound to defend, unless by action of our own Congress, which alone has the power to declare war. We don't want our hands tied by the promise to "defend the territorial integrity" of half the world. We have had enough of war for a long time.

When scores of our citizens were murdered by the Huns in the sinking of the Lusitana we were not slow to resent the insult, and neither will we (the Republican party) be slow under President Harding (God willing) to resent any insult, or to "plow around" any stump.

SATURDAY PROMISES TO BE A BIG DAY FOR DAYTON AND GOVERNOR COX.

People become very much attached to their political party. Feeling its principles to be the best for the government of our dear country, it becomes a religious mania to seek its perpetuation. One author says "he knows very few of mankind, who expect, by any facts of reasoning, to convince a determined party man." Horace Mann said, "One thing I certainly never was made for, and that is to put principles on and off, as a lackey changes his livery at his master's command." So it is that we each stick to our party.

But, there come occasions when local pride impels all of us to feel a comradeship which, for the time being, overshadows political feeling. It was so at Marion when the whole town and country blazed with home pride at the nomination of their fellow citizen, Warren C. Harding, for the Presidency, and turned out, without regard to partisanship, to do him honor.

And so we know it will be, on Saturday, at the Cox notification meeting at Dayton, when great multitudes of Governor Cox's fellow citizens, irrespective of party, will assemble to honor him as the nominee of his party, for the Presidency. It is to be a personal, not a partisan tribute to the man.

Why should not we of Xenia be on hand on this occasion? Did not Governor Cox lay aside for the time his ministerial dignity as our state sovereign, and come over here and play auctioneer to help in a good Red Cross cause? Why not return the compliment?

Governor Cox, as a resident of Dayton, is our neighbor, and we want to be neighborly. It is a shame not to be so—it is churlish. Governor Cox is a newspaper man. As such, we of the same fraternity feel much honored over his nomination. We greet him, personally, with hearty good cheer.

BROWN DECRIES LYNCHING AND LIBERTY BOND EXPLOITATION IN XENIA ADDRESS

Speaking from a stand on the lawn at the Pennacott house lawn Friday Walter F. Brown of Toledo, Republican candidate for United States Senator, touched national issues, and made a plea for equality of the negro in the south.

He said in part:
"Lynchings and the various means employed in the south to prevent negro citizens from voting are matters of national concern," said Mr. Brown. "Thoughtful men agree with Col. Roosevelt that our country cannot long be a good place for any of us to live in if it is not a pretty good place for all of us to live in. Denial to any portion of our citizenship, ship of the right of trial by jury not only is an infamous offense against the individuals directly involved, but cannot fail to destroy the respect for law and order which is essential to national well being."

"I of course favor the enactment of so called anti-lynching law, but in my judgement the practical way to stop negro lynching in the south is for the federal government to protect our southern negro citizens in their political rights. Lynching will stop when negroes are permitted to vote."

He declared that the League of Nations was a political scheme and that President Wilson made a "fundamental mistake by writing the covenant into the peace treaty."

The question of Liberty bonds was discussed at length. In this regard Mr. Brown said in part:

"Liberty Bonds were sold by the Treasury department with the positive assurance that their market value would be maintained at par."

"Not only has this promise to the patriotic men, women and children who loaned their savings and credit to the government been broken, but an agency of the government the Federal Reserve bank, by advancing its account rate on loans secured by Liberty bonds has compelled bondholders who could not afford to pay the exorbitant interest exacted to offer their bonds at forced sale."

"In a market consisting almost entirely of sellers, bond values fell rapidly. The Treasury department more or less effort whatever to support the market. When the bottom was reached and a bond that had cost the subscriber $100 was offered for a little more than $80 the Federal Reserve bank went into market and invested its swollen war profit surplus in Liberty Bonds, thus squeezed out of the public."

Mr. Brown's suit case was forgotten when he left the train at Xenia, and as it contained valuable papers he was anxious to recover it at once. Following his appearance here he was given the use of H. E. Schmidt automobile and with J. K. Williamson, Dr. H. C. Messenger and Paul H. Creswell motored to Cincinnati where

RACE DRIVER HURT IN ACCIDENT DIES OF FRACTURED SKULL

As the result of a severe concussion and severe head injuries received when tramped by a horse at the county fair races at the Fair Grounds, Wednesday, William B. Stansel, of Dayton, race horse owner and driver well known over the Ohio Fair Circuit, died at the McClellan Hospital Friday afternoon.

Mr. Stansel received the fatal injuries about six o'clock Wednesday evening when driving Ed. J. S., a brown gelding by Zake, in the first heat of the 2:30 pace, the last race started Wednesday afternoon. The driver was trailing Ohio Longman, of Eaton, driving Kid Bale, at the three-quarter turn of the second half mile of the first heat, when Kid Bale stumbled and fell, throwing Longman to the ground.

Ed. J. S., was so close to the faller horse and driver that the driver was unable to avoid running into the mix up. Ed. J. S., pulling the bike and driver ran over the top of the faller bike and driver, throwing Stansel beneath the hoofs of Kid Bale. The horse trampled the man, causing a severe concussion, mashing his nose and cutting his face to pieces with his hoofs. He was picked up unconscious and taken to the McClellan hospital but never regained consciousness. Dr. R. R. McClellan attended him.

Mr. Stansel was about 50 years of age and was a blacksmith in Dayton.

He was married and had several children, one of whom is also a race driver. His name was a familiar one on race programs throughout the Ohio fair circuit as he always had an entry in the Fair races. He had raced at the county fair here for a number of years and this year had about eight or nine horses in his stable. Neither one of the horses was hurt in the accident. Longman escaped with a broken arm. The body of Mr. Stansel was taken to Dayton for burial.

It will do you good to know that others

C. F. Schwartz has a healthy crop of Sunflowers on the west side of his store room.

A. A. McNeil, of Centerville, was in town Tuesday entertaining his old friends.

We clipped from an ancient copy of "The Bellbrook Moon" now yellow with age, and because of exposure to the elements, rendered almost unreadable, what seems to be the tail end of an invitation to attend some sort of a society function on Possum Run, when that notorious corner of the universe was at the height of its glory. The two lines read as follows: "Bring your pistol, sword and gun—All on Board for Possum Run."

Political Hoggishness

The state primaries are here Tuesday, and voters will go to the polls to cast their ballot for candidates whom they wish to represent them in state and county offices. Sober reflection on the part of the franchised public, as to the merits of these office seekers, brings up the question of how often a man can legitimately seek re-election to a new office.

There are some well established customs as to this matter in certain offices, but as to others it seems to be merely a question of how often the seeker can succeed. Where ought the line be drawn?

It seems to us that three or, in extreme cases, four terms in a particular office are as much as any man can legitimately ask. After that he lays himself open to the charge of "hoggishness," and by virtue of his having been in politics longer than his opponents, finds himself again in office to the exclusion of some better, but less well known candidate who would likely bring fresh ideas and organization into the office with him.

Little can be said in favor of the man, who term after term seeks re-election to his old post. By his very action he attempts to exclude other aspirants to the office, men who in all probability are just as well, or better fitted, for the office. A man's usefulness to the community in one particular position has a limit, and when that is reached and some other good man desires the office the incumbent should feel in honor bound to step down and out.

THREE OF REMAINING FOUR RACES WON IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Three of the four race which wound up the speed program of the Greene County Fair Friday, were won in straight heats, letting the bugs get away early for the first time in the week.

St. Patrick the Great, took the 1st trot in three straight heats, L. D. won the 2:25 pace in straight heats; and Luther G., took the 2:15 pace in straight heats, while the only split heat race of the afternoon was won in four heats by Frank Hedrick with Todd McGregor.

The crowd was disappointed once during the afternoon when Mrs. W. E. Daoust, woman driver and race winner of Wednesday was forced to draw her pacer, Capt. Field, in the second heat of the 2:15 pace, because the gelding went lame in one foot. Mrs. Daoust had finished third in the first heat with the pacer and was a favorite in the stands.

Jap Simon, the pacer, owned by Paul Edwards, of this city, had bad luck in the first heat of the 25 pace. The sulky of Woody Wilkes collided with the sulky of Jap Simon, driven by Brickie, and both were forced to retire. Unable to secure another sulky, Woody Wilkes was forced to draw, while Jap Simon was driven the heat and while in the front broke a hobble and was distanced. Starkey a Peters Bros., started in this race fell down when the horses were scoring for the word in the third heat but recovered in time to pace the heat, coming in fourth and winning third money.

Starter Stephen G. Phillips again got the speeders away in good shape during the final afternoon.

STRAY THOUGHTS

The recipe came almost immediately, and with it a long letter of instructions just how to proceed.

"We couldn't spoil them if we wanted to," Mary said, but I noticed she read the letter several times, I chafed her about learning it by heart.

She went at once to work. The berry season had just commenced. I tried to make her remain at home all day during this time, but she insisted upon coming down for luncheon.

"If I stay away mornings I can get enough to last us," she said, "and who knows what mischief you will get into if I leave you alone all day."

Her preserves were just as good as Aunt Susan's. We had followed Aunt's advice and had a farmer bring us his berries. They were much firmer and better than those sold in the markets. We bought the sugar at wholesale and also the glasses.

"We're the real thing when it comes to business," Mary boasted.

In the fall we added to our menu tea and biscuits, and eggs cooked in any way desired.

"We just had to have the biscuits!" Mary explained to Mrs. Fagin. "They go with the preserves, you know."

It had been a suggestion of one of our steady customers. She had praised the preserves, then said:

"They would be delicious with hot tea biscuits!" Mary had overheard, and the addition to the menu had been the result.

We were doing very well, and so hired a girl to wash dishes and clean at the home of Mandy Ellis on East Third street. We paid not guilty before, Police Judge E. Dawson Smith Saturday morning and put up a cash bond of $10 for appearance in court Monday morning.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

We had put in three more tables, and even so, were often obliged to make people wait.

"Well soon have to have a bigger place," I remarked to Mrs. Fagin one day after we had been running nearly seven months.

"Yes—but finish the year where you are. I was talking to Mr. Pope about you, and he is looking out for a larger, better place."

"You wonderful woman!" I said again, as I had said once months before.

"She's Irish, ain't she?" Mary asked again.

Mary had begun to study seriously. She bought some second-hand school books, and then we read together.

I hated to have her studies drudgey for her, and so used the school books only when necessary. She was very quick, her grammar, her speech, was her greatest stumbling block.

"I never shall talk right—never if I live to be as old as that fellow in the Bible who lived 900 years," she bemoaned.

"Oh, yes, you will. You improve every day." And she did. 'Ain't' and words like that which she had used all her life were all often on her lips but almost invariably she would correct herself. I was delighted with her progress. She had always been companionable, but now that we read good standard books together she would discuss them with me, often bringing out points I had failed to see. Her mind, like her wit, was quicker than mine. Her sense of of humor her quaint speech all made her most attractive.

"You would be a belle in any set if you could mingle with young people instead of having to spend your days in the shop," I told her once.

"Am I really doing better, Zena?" "Indeed you are! You never forget your 'G' nowadays. You used to think them unnecessary." Then I added, "I notice Mr. Pope talks to you a lot, Mary. He's a bachelor. Be careful!"

"Stop your kidding! He only talks about the shop and—you. I honestly think he is falling in love with you, Zena."

"Nonsense! We scarcely exchange a word unless we talk about pan-

"They say the way to a man's heart is thru his stomach. Perhaps the road to his runs thru pancake lane."

I laughed. But as always when anything of the sort came up, my thoughts flew to Kenneth Lawrence—the man I never expected to see again, yet who had kept me from caring for any other—perhaps from marrying Jack Pryor. If he had not obeyed Mother, I should have heard from him—of that I was sure.

Some way, deep down in my heart, I knew that in that time so far away he had cared for me, cared more than he had allowed me to see. I had been a 'butterfly girl' then, so he said, and he a poor man. Would he care for me now? I doubted it. I had changed, and to my own fears, not for the better.

To Be Continued.
